FILA

FUTURE INDUSTRY LEADERS ALLIANCE

Today's managers are the industry's existing and future executives and leaders. FILA was created to foster the career advancement of its members and prepare them for the challenges ahead through networking and mentoring.

Our activities include opportunities:

To improve and learn new business, financial and management skills.

To improve and develop additional leadership skills.

To tour other members' facilities and gain operational insight.

To network and socialize with your peers.

To raise issues and problems for group consideration.
